Pole, Sign Damaged As Tractor Slides

A transformer was knocked off the Edison Company pole and the street sign broken when a tractor fell off a trailer at Lomita Blvd. and Ebony Ave. Saturday, sheriff's deputies reported. The tractor also received some damage.

Exceptional Child Group Plans Meet

A general meeting of the Harbor Area Exceptional Children's Foundation will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the Townerman Settlement, 131 N. Grand, San Pedro. Councilman John S. Gibson will be guest speaker. The Foundation is affiliated with the National Association for Retarded Children and the California Council for Retarded Children, and is a non-profit association of friends and parents of the Torrance, Lomita, Wilmington, San Pedro and Bay cities areas. Supplies and special training equipment for the training center at the Settlement house are furnished by the Foundation.

Recreational Programs Now On at THS

Fall and winter recreation programs for afternoon and evening hours have been started by the Torrance Recreation Department, it was announced yesterday. In the Torrance High School gymnasium, a program of badminton is held every Monday night in the girls gym, and basketball in the boys gym. Thursday nights mixed volleyball is held in the boys gym. In the Civic Auditorium, the square dance class meets each first and third Wednesday evening, with a beginning adults class on Tuesday night, and a beginning class for teenagers on Friday night. Afternoon recreational programs also are under way at Walteria and McMaster parks.

Halloween Events Set For Saturday

A program of Halloween events will be conducted at the Torrance parks, Saturday afternoon and evening, climaxed by a teenagers dance at the Civic Auditorium Saturday night. Each one of the park areas, Walteria, El Retiro and McMaster, will offer Halloween programs in the afternoon, according to the Recreation Department. Parents interested in the program schedule should contact recreation directors at the local parks.
